This month's meeting will feature Randy Anderson, General Aviation Modifications, Inc. He will speak about the quality, design and manufacturing requirements of the "GAMI Jector", an after-market fuel injector for airplanes.

Cofounders Braly and Roehl from Ada, Oklahoma developed and patented the technology and received FAA approval for the product: "GAMI jector", a fuel injector that improves engine life and lowers fuel consumption.

The manufacturing and superior quality of components is completed at General Aviation Modifications Inc (GAMI) Ada, Oklahoma air port.

GAMI is certified to install their fuel injectors on 400 models of aircraft, including Cessna, Piper, Diamond, Mooney and Cirrus aircrafts. GAMI is a sister company to Tornado Alley Turbo, Inc. producer of Turbo normalizing systems for piston aircrafts.

Randy's background includes 13 years in the Navy working with the Navigation Department. He has traveled around the world on four US Navy Ships. He currently ensures the aerospace Highest Quality Criteria from Receiving of tight tolerance machined components through incoming inspection, through assembly and finishing process. This is mission critical product has been installed over 18,000 single and twin piston aircrafts throughout the USA, Europe, Australia, South America and all over the world.

As a part of ASQ's "Each One Reach One" program we encourage everyone to invite a guest to attend this informative presentation.

Subject Matter Experts Needed for Product Development

ASQ is seeking experts to write practice questions for the Certified Software Quality Engineer (CSQE) body of knowledge. These questions will be used to develop an online product to give ASQ members and customers the opportunity to take practice tests similar to the certification exam. Subject matter experts must be certified and should not have written for an actual ASQ exam within the past two years to maintain the integrity of our certification exams. If you are interested in participating, please contact Jessica Miller at: jmiller@asq.org for details.

ASQ Weekly Newsletter to Feature Monthly Contest

Who defined the “Zero Defects” quality approach? What recognition system was created by the United States Congress in 1987 to reward organizations that promote quality? These are just a sample of the questions that, if answered correctly, could win readers prizes in a new monthly contest to be featured in ASQ Weekly, the electronic newsletter distributed each Wednesday to ASQ members.

The contest — to begin with the August 27 issue — will challenge readers on a variety of quality-based topics. After the newsletter is distributed, respondents will have until noon on Friday of that week to submit their responses via e-mail. For the first several months of the contest, answers will be found in the ASQ Knowledge Center. In subsequent months, the questions will be based on articles featured in ASQ Weekly. ASQ members who submit the correct answer will be put into a random drawing to win a prize.

Participants have the opportunity to win one of several prizes. One prize is the book, The Logical Thinking Process: A Systems Approach to Complex Problem Solving by William Dettmer. Using real-world applications, Dettmer has streamlined the process of constructing logic trees while simultaneously ensuring that the results are more logically sound and closer representations of reality than ever before. Another prize — awarded one month only — will be a Quality Management Journal subscription, which provides members with a forum for communicating and discussing research findings.

Introducing the 2008-2009 Appointed Board Members

July marks the start of a new year for our section and we are proud to introduce our newly appointed Board members. Their contact information can be found on page 2. Most of these dedicated volunteers have been on the board for several years. Several are forming committees and are looking for help. If you would like to volunteer a few hours each month, please contact us!

Rhonda Woolson, Recertification Chair:

Rhonda has been a member of ASQ since approx 1996, has been an active Board Member since 2000, and has held the positions of Treasurer, Secretary, Certification Chair, and Re-Certification Chair. Currently Rhonda is employed at The Boeing Company as a Resource Coordinator and found this job due to having a Quality Auditor Certification through the ASQ and having a military background. Hobbies include gardening, refinishing furniture, quilting, guitar and much time is invested in relearning the lessons of life thorough the eyes of several of her nine grandchildren.

Ralph Snyder, Section Management Program (SMP) Chair:

Ralph has been a member of ASQ since approx 1996, has been an active Board Member since 2002, and has held the positions of Secretary, Vice Chair, and Chair. He is a long time employee at Autocraft Industries currently serving as Quality Engineer; Ralph grew into this job as a result of personal motivation and growth inspired and assisted by God's Word, the loving counsel of his wife, Rhonda, the US Navy Seabee culture and leadership training, and the ASQ resources and training opportunities. Hobbies include gardening, aquaculture, collecting and using old tools and guns. Ralph is proud father to 5 children & soon to be 10 grandchildren.

Luann Darrow, Nomination Chair:

A senior member of ASQ, joining in 1998. Served the board as Secretary 2005 - 2006. Luann is a Quality Management System Specialist at the Mike Monroney Aeronautical Center/FAA in Oklahoma City, and a RABQSA certified QMS-LA since 1994.

Bob Curley Student Liason:

Has been a member of ASQ since 1992. He was Education Chair and the faculty advisor to the UCO student section during much of the 90's. He is a UCO faculty member teaching classes in statistics. While earning his PhD at OU, he not only taught but also worked for the athletic department and thus got to see all of the football, basketball and other sports for free. What little free time he has is spent with friends and his pet cats.

Stormy Sims - Audit / Examining Chair,

Stormy has previously served as Section Chair, Treasurer and Membership Chair. Stormy has been a member of ASQ since 1990 and a Senior member for about 10 years. He is an ASQ Certified Quality Auditor and he is the Quality Manager at Surface Mount Deport in OKC. During his time away from work, he enjoys spending time with his wife, Kaye, riding their motorcycle around the country.

Rose Sutcliffe, Newsletter Chair/Immediate Past Chair:

Has been a member of ASQ since 2001, Rose has been an active Board Member since 2004 and has held positions as Secretary, Vice Chair, Chair, and Newsletter Chair. She is the QA/QC Manager for Phil-Good Products, a custom plastic injection molding company. As an IRCA Certified QMS 2000 Lead Auditor she has performed many ISO 9001:2000 certification/recertification and internal audits. Her hobbies include reading, working out and spending quality time with family and friends.

Delphia Hawkins, Membership Chair:

Delphia has served as Program Chair and several other chair positions as well as serving on the ASQ National Board of Directors as Deputy Region 14 Director and Region 14 Director. During this time she also served on the Membership Committee in Milwaukee. The board of Directors helped to shape an international organization with a Mission plan and Vision for the future. Delphia is a retired Telecommunications Manager. She joined the BELLCORE Quality Team as Quality Technical Manager. She traveled the USA and other continents sharing the quality message via workshops and seminars for education, government, and health issues, She is a certified Mediator and spends a lot of time volunteering in the church, schools and her community,
