Tour:

Oklahoma City Museum of Art

This month's meeting will be a tour at the Oklahoma City Museum of Art. Carolyn Hill, the Executive Director, will give a short presentation at 5:30 before the tour.

Exhibits we will have the opportunity to view include the Washington Gallery of Modern Art Collection and the Westheimer Family collection and don't forget the Chihuly Glass Exhibit.

Also, for those who might want to stay after the tour, there is "Cocktails on the Skyline" from 5:00-10:30 and the Museum Cafe. (ASQ will not provide these pleasures).

Carolyn Hill, a native of Oklahoma City, has been Executive Director of the Oklahoma City Museum of Art since 1994. She received both her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Oklahoma and completed post-graduate studies at The Juilliard School of Music, New York, and The Mozarteum, Salzburg, Austria, where she was awarded a diploma in conducting. An avid art enthusiast, Hill studied art history at major European museums over the course of seven summers abroad.

Her professional career includes over thirty years of simultaneous work in education/administration, music, and the visual arts in New York City. She was appointed Executive Director of the Oklahoma City Museum of Art in September 1994. During her tenure, the Museum has achieved and maintained fiscal stability, operating consecutive years in the black, and is debt free. Hill was instrumental in the Museum's successful $40 million Legacy Campaign to build the Donald W. Reynolds Visual Arts Center, overseeing its design and construction, as well as its $3 million campaign to purchase Dale Chihuly: The Exhibition, the most comprehensive collection of Chihuly glass in the world.

Parking and more information about the Museum can be found on their website: <http://www.okcmoa.com>.
